Write your responses in the space provided.

Boys:

Imagine that you have a child and are not married to the mother. What do you feel is your responsibility? What would friends, family, and members of the community think about you? What about your background makes you think so?

Girls:

Imagine that you have a child and are not married to the father. What do you feel is your responsibility? What would friends, family, and members of the community think about you? What about your background makes you think so?

Everyone:

Rank the following actions in terms of their degree of wrongfulness or sinfulness. First write them in order from most wrong to least wrong. Use the back of your paper to explain why you rank them the way you do.

- Committing adultery
- Allowing another person to accept blame for a crime you committed
- Obsessively seeking revenge for wrongs committed against you
- Condemning among others the wrongs that you yourself have committed
