

ROLL A STORY

Make a picture cube by using magazine pictures or photos of objects.

Have the children roll the cube and make up a sentence about the object. You may have them make up a short story about that one picture. More than once cube could be used so they have to incorporate two or more pictures in their stories.

